Project Description

Jada Homes was looking to create a modern farmhouse to run their business out of. The open and inviting look of the multiple door systems on the front elevation give the feel of a farmhouse in the desert. The Euro handles and contemporary divided lite bars provide a modern flair to a classic style, while a mix of double hung and casement windows keep the farm feel to the home. The quad sliding patio door on the rear gives a great view of the city and desert.

Unique Requirements/Solutions

The client was looking to maximize the view from the great room and in the kitchen. The quad sliding patio door provides a great view of the city and desert. They also wanted a classic farm feel; the double hung windows with custom divided lites provide the look and feel they were trying to capture.
